

I had long distance company with AT&T and some-one changed long distance AT&T to sprint local service and I called them they said we applied your credit but if you not contact with Federal Communications commission. We will reverse your credit. And I called both places they said you didn't call. AT&T they said some called from sprint and sprint said somebody called AT&T.